Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to recognize those Show-Me State residents who have proven to be exceptional citizens in their local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Joe Fields deserves commendation for his well-deserved selection to receive the 2002 St. Charles Crime Stoppers Media Relations award which will be presented to him on Thursday, April 24, 2003, at the Eleventh Annual Community Recognition Dinner at The Columns Banquet Center; and

Whereas, Joe Fields will receive Media Relations honors and accolades because of his role in bringing the Crime Stoppers television program back into production after an absence from local cable networks for several years; and

Whereas, the Crime Stoppers television program highlights recent unsolved crimes in the city of St. Charles in order to get information about the event from knowledgeable members of the public; and

Whereas, Joe Fields has been employed with the city of St. Charles for four years, was promoted recently to full-time Associate Producer, was selected for a 2003 Telly Award, and has served as a driving force behind Cable Access Channel 20's PRISM Program which features city departments and their service to the community; and

Whereas, Joe Fields is quite deserving of both local and state-level recognition of the excellence of his public safety activities through cable access television; and

Whereas, it is through the actions of professionals such as Joe Fields that society is made safer and the criminal element is called to task for preying on the vast majority of an area's residents who are law-abiding and peaceful:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the selection of Joe Fields for the 2002 St. Charles Crime Stoppers Media Relations award and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt commendation of his willingness to intervene on behalf of others in dangerous circumstances; and
